Prejudice and Discrimination is Learned

Over the next year, we started to overhear one of his white friends talking about the color of their skin. There are lots of different skin colors, and all of them are good colors! They can also display racial bias at an age as young as 3 years old.

Fair play: talking with children about prejudice and discrimination

Adults often worry that introducing these topics too early could be harmful Husband 2010.

How to Teach Children About Racism & Violence at Every Age

In the end, everybody loses out from the effects of prejudice and discrimination. But like language immersion, children exposed to society will gain fluency in racial bias even if their parents do nothing. Note: To continue the conversation in a way that is likely more personally meaningful, instructors could have students list the privileges that boys and girls experience.

Prejudice and Discrimination is Learned

Explain why the death of George Floyd has sparked protests and riots.

Small corrections in our thinking today could alter the character of society long term, one future citizen at a time. Teaching Children Begins by Taking a Look at Ourselves Parents, guardians, and teachers also struggle with diversity issues every day. Every activity should be about all of the children, as everyone has a racial identity.
