Londres, Entrée du cinématographe (1896)

Furthermore, while only one person at a time could use Edison's kinetoscope for viewing—through an eyepiece, style—the Cinématographe could project an image onto a screen so a large audience of people could view images simultaneously. His cinema as art is about motion pictures which are full of a myriad of artistic possibilities, something that is rarely explored in contemporary cinema today.

Cinematograph

On voit le couloir du film et la fenêtre de cadrage du film

Cinématographe

There's obviously nothing ground-breaking going on but fans of the genre should enjoy watching this.

Du cinématographe by Jean Cocteau

His films had an ethereal beauty and elegance and he wanted them to appeal through images rather than words. . It is a joke, as much as the production of literature, pictures or music.

Le Cinématographe Lumière

Cette configuration délicate, qui rend la pellicule plus fragile lors des projections, n'aura pas de postérité et elle est vite abandonnée, au profit des perforations Edison.

Caméra Cinématographe — Wikipédia

The flask also acted as a safety feature, as the light would no longer focus on the flammable film if the glass were to break due to overheating or accident.
