Spain. Golden Age Literature. Overview.

His paintings St Jerome Listening to the Sound of the Trumpet and St Sebastian and St Irene are remarkable for the intense emotional quality of the figures, the saturation of colour, and the unusual use of light and shade. Of the other prose fiction forms, the Spanish sentimental romances of the 15th century or earlier enjoyed some success in the Golden Age, as did Byzantine romances of Greek inspiration in the latter years of the 16th century.
