The War Is Over (1966)

The boy is consumed with questions: when will the war end, how can children be at war, how can it be right that his mom fills shells with shrapnel, why are conscientious objectors beaten, why is a white feather, intrins Hmmn. John worries about both his parents - his dad getting killed at the front, his mam in a accident at the munitions factory, and he just wants to know when the war will be over. .

War is Over by David Almond

Typical imagery can be seen on the cover with John at the bottom carrying a white feather, the perceived simple of cowardice given to conscientious objectors, with the industrial landscape behind him where the munitions factory is and above that the black birds morphing into shells then birds again.

Happy Xmas (War Is Over)

There follows an incredible moment. Knowing that it is specifically about World War I, helped me calm down from my initial reaction. Retrieved 31 December 2019 — via.

WAR IS OVER!

War Is Over is set in 1918 at the Western Front of World War I.

War is Over by David Almond

The most notable of these instances occurred immediately following on 8 December 1980. It's all tough to take in. But he is just a child.
