Edited by Stephen Hobson and Dr. Lorna Simpson Born in 1960, is an African-American photographer and multimedia artist who found success in the 1980s and 90s.

Jo Spence (1934

Her work gives a realistic picture of the great changes that have occurred in the consciousness of contemporary women. The work implicates the viewers and once they acknowledge that two fried eggs and a kebab resemble a women, they are forced to recognize this derogatory perception of women. Jan-Feb 1999 'Too close to home? The work has been exhibited widely, Nationally and Internationally, since 1985.
